I cannot relate to the rigid decorating 'rules' of the author. Patterned fabrics are pretty however, and there are a maybe 2 photos to which I can relate.Sorry must return.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. So pretty!By CustomerBeautiful book. Bought it for its colorful cover to decorate my bookshelves. It makes me happy every time i see it in the stack.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five

StarsBy MWadeVery pretty book with some great decorating advice.

In Absolutely Beautiful Things, successful designer Anna Spiro shows you how to create an interior that's just right for you. To her, it's all about the mix, not the match, and, with her help, you'll find beauty in unexpected places. She'll give you the confidence to put together a layered and very individual home using elements you love, and make you see your old belongings in a new light. As well as lavish photographs of rooms Anna has created, she shares many of her secrets from a life in decorating, gives practical details on how to work with pattern and color, and provides a room-by-room guide to furniture choice. 'I always endeavour to create happy, interesting, layered and uplifting spaces. That means mixing everything: color and pattern, old and new, square and round, quirky and conservative. It's the imperfections and surprises that make a space interesting'.

About the Author Anna Spiro is a Brisbane-based interior designer with a passion for vibrant colour. In addition to running her renowned interior design practice and shop, Black Spiro, Anna is the author of an internationally acclaimed blog, Absolutely Beautiful Things. She has a flair for layering fabrics and textiles with antiques and special one-off pieces to create a diverse and inspiring space full of individual charm.
