About the Author Robin and Christine Holt have been involved in the kitchen and bedroom industry for over forty years. 'The best thing about our work is helping people to achieve their dream kitchen or bedroom within their budget. Taking their ideas and physically realizing them is the most satisfying thing. We have an amazing team behind us helping us to do that. The kitchen is the heart of the home and the bedroom its soul. Creating, buying and installing the furniture for these rooms should be an absolute pleasure. We wanted to write 'The Insiders' View' because over the years we have heard so many unhappy stories from people who have been disappointed, even swindled in the past. We listened to what our clients had to say about what they wish they had known before they started the kitchen buying process, and took note. That's how the book came about.' Their company has won many awards and accolades through the years - non as important to them as a happy client. In his spare time Robin loves to cook and he also coaches a university American football team. Christine has an interest in positive psychology and writes articles and books about happiness under the pen name, Christine L Conroy.
