Living Proof it WorksBy sherri fatovicI must admit I was a coupon shopping skeptic, especially since I had tried couponing years ago with relatively no success. Cindy's book changed my whole outlook on couponing and since week one I've been able to save no less than 60% of my weekly food shopping total, and I have a fantastic stockpile of the items my family uses. Tips contained in this book: where to find coupons, how to stack, locating the best deals for the items you use and learning sale cycles set it apart from others. Sale cycles? Yup, I never knew about them either! Now I do, and couponing has become my part time job that doesn't take me away from my family and gives me the money I was looking for to offset the rest of my household budget. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great couponing book if you want to save money and coupon let Cindy show you how. By casper I am definitely living rich with coupons. I have been following Cindy about five months now and I love her!!! She's so nice and peppy and is so excited about couponing that it makes me excited about couponing. I follow her on Facebook, Instagram and have her app. I've been couponing for about four years now and by following her I have saved even more money and have a great stockpile. She's really easy to follow and this book has such great information. It prepares you for couponing with the couponing lingo, the stores policy and much more. I love her story of how she began to coupon and making a budget. I love saving money and love couponing that I teach my coworkers how to do it as well. I refer them all to living rich with coupons. I recommend this book and everything living rich is on. Thank you Cindy and your team for all you do. 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Great stuff! About the Author Cindy Livesey is on a mission to help us save money and live richer lives. The Rachael Ray Show's coupon expert, Cindy created her website, Living Rich With Coupons, in 2009 to share her couponing strategies and tips with family and friends. Within a year, the site had more traffic than it could handle, so she upgraded it and turned it into a full-service couponing mecca. Cindy came up with her couponing strategies when her husband's job was eliminated and she was forced to put her household on a budget. By strategically using coupons, she saved $11,000 on groceries in one year! Through Living Rich With Coupons, Cindy and her team provide thousands of people with a money-saving approach that will allow them to pay off debt, save for vacations, pay college tuition, buy new cars, and even splurge on a designer handbag.
